Study part-time at NCAD

The National College of Art & Design, Dublin, is Ireland's leading provider of art and design education.

Our campus on Thomas Street in Dublin's historic city centre is home to a community of 1,500 undergraduate, graduate and part-time students engaged in a wide range of study and research across the disciplines of Design, Education, Fine Art and Visual Culture.

NCAD has been the most significant provider of Art & Design education in Ireland for over 250 years and is a Recognised College of University College Dublin.

Continuing Education Summer Short Courses

Summer short courses at NCAD offer you the opportunity to immerse yourself in art and design – to explore your creative potential, learn new skills, or develop an on-going practice.

Courses in fine art and design are for beginners, advanced students, and practicing artists who want to develop skills in a specific discipline. The Portfolio Preparation course will help you to prepare your portfolio for applications to third level courses in Art and Design.

Join us this Summer, meet other artists and students, and become part of a vibrant contemporary art community.

We look forward to welcoming you to NCAD!
