Introduction

This module focuses on the development of skills and knowledge applicable to the formation of a professional practice and identity.

The aims of this module are:

1. Provide an introduction to library resources and appropriate use of library facilities to inform research and practice.
2. Develop students' confidence in the use of research resources online and face to face through library facilities.
3. Establish ways of working appropriate to and applicable to professional practice.
4. Develop a knowledge of gallery and cultural resources and how they relate to the development of professional practice.
5. Be able to critique methods and ideas.

What will I learn?

On successful completion of this module students will be able to:

- Use library facilities to undertake research and apply to assignments.
- Recognise a range of cultural resources including; galleries, museums, shops/informal display spaces and assess such facilities in the formation of an emergent practice.
- Display project work to peers and other selected audiences.
- Critically assess the presentation of project work.
- Select and edit project work for display.

How will I have the chance to evaluate the module?

It is important to NCAD that students inform the development of teaching and learning at NCAD. We encourage all students to communicate their concerns and their observations about their study to members of staff so that any changes can be made in a timely manner.

A student forum will be convened to gather students' comments about their study and the delivery of the programme. In addition, at the end of Trimester 2, students have the opportunity to complete an online evaluation of their study and experience at NCAD. These evaluation events are important to current and future students, to ensure we can enhance the delivery of programmes at NCAD.

In addition, you are invited to discuss your experience on the module with your lecturers at any point during the year. You can also relay your comments to the class student representative who will communicate your comments to the staff.
