MODULE DESCRIPTOR

Art in the Contemporary World "Situations 3: electives"

Credits	5	Course	MA ACW
Level	9	Faculty	VISUAL CULTURE
Semester	2	Module Coordinator	Declan Long/ Francis Halsall

Synopsis

This module is comprised of a range of elective seminars from which students pick one. All electives are focused on a specific research area/ question. They address a variety of cultural and social contexts for art practice today. They also, frequently, concern the crossover between art and related disciplines. Key features of Situations include: (i) seminars on specific research interests of contributors; (ii) invited/ guest contributions; (ii) collaborative initiatives with other institutions.

In the past seminars have included topics such as Systems Aesthetics; Art & Literature; Art and Ecology; and collaborations with Irish Film Institute; Irish Museum of Modern Art; The Joinery (a not for profit gallery.)

What will I learn?

On successful completion of this module students should be able to:
