15:00

Emily Jacir and Art in the Contemporary World.

Dar Yusuf Nasri Jacir for Art and Research is a grass-roots independent artist-run initiative founded in 2014 established by the artist Emily Jacir in her 19th century family home in Bethlehem. The students of Art in the Contemporary World have invited Emily and her colleagues to discuss their work and in particular the recent shocking attack on the centre by Israeli forces.

18:00

Digital Artworks – Artist Lee Welch with the NCAD Media Graduates 2021
Online Event

Artist and curator Lee Welch will host a public seminar with NCAD Fine Art Media graduates focusing on themes and strategies evident in their work. This event is an opportunity to discuss the exciting artworks produced by this year's graduates from NCAD's Media Department. Ranging from moving image to photography, and from virtual spaces to internet art, this year's Media graduates have chosen unique perspectives and deployed new artistic strategies in responding to our changing world.
