MODULE DESCRIPTOR

Practice Research and Development: Fine Art (FAPG 2-1)

Credits	10	Course	MA Fine Art
Level	9	School	Fine Art
Semester	3	Module Co ordinator	Heads of Subject

Synopsis

This practice based module is designed to develop art practice engagement and to develop links with the wider world of fine art practice and requires that the student pursue a line of research within their work that engages with a relevant field of practice. By negotiating opportunities for the creation and/or location and distribution of their work the student is required to engage with organisations and agencies that operate in a professional field. The framing of the student's practice should be such as to act as a positive contributor to the way that a public perceives their work.

Aims

- To extend the student's practice into a professional arena.
- To encourage the student to engage with the relevant systems of production, display, and distribution for their work.
- To develop an awareness of how professional networks and systems frame art practice by negotiating a relevant opportunity for the exhibition or production of their work.

What will I learn?
