#CorkLearningCity

Q. What is the Creative Arts Summer School?

A. This is the fifth Creative Arts School and it is funded by the Department of Education and Skills, now the Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science Programme for Access to Higher Education (PATH) initiative.

Participating Institutions – Institute of Art, Design and Technology, Dun Laoghaire (IADT); National College of Art and Design (NCAD); Marino Institute of Education (MIE); Trinity College Dublin (TCD); and University College Dublin (UCD), RCSI University of Medicine and Health Sciences and MTU Crawford College of Art and MTU Cork School of Music.

The Creative Arts Summer School will be delivered over 8 days from Monday 13 June to Friday 24th June 2022 from 10.00am – 4.00pm. The aim of the Creative Arts Summer School is to raise awareness of the higher education opportunities in the creative arts in Dublin and Cork. The project is operated through the Access Services in each of the participating colleges and seeks to widen participation for groups currently under represented in our colleges.

You will have the opportunity to spend one-day in each campus in CASS Dublin or CASS Cork or have an opportunity to engage virtually with CASS on Friday 17th & 24th. You will participate in on campus creative arts workshops. You will have the opportunity to find out about the application processes, entry requirements, student support services and creative career opportunities related to each college's creative courses.

Q. How will I get to the different colleges?

A bus will be provided in CASS Dublin to provide access to IADT, MIE AND UCD.
